Our Head Chef

Harry Sandhu

Describing the cuisine at Qube Bar & Grill is like trying to clap your paws over a laser pointer. That's in no small part because of Executive Chef Harry Sandhu's own culinary background. He began sharpening his skills in his native India, where he learned to combine bold spices into aromatic curries. After graduating Australian Culinary Institute he continued to grow his expertise in five-star hotel resorts and restaurants across the island continent. Now inside the historic Villa Hotel, Chef Harry fills Qube Bar & Grill's kitchen with culinary influences from America, Asia, Australia, Europe, and even Mexico
